

READ

LIBRARIES

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN—MADISON

- Approximately five million people visit the UW—Madison campus libraries every year.
- Online visits to Library Web sites exceed 44 million.
- In one year, MadCat, the online library catalog, is accessed more than 123 million times.
- Memorial Library—the main UW—Madison campus library—is Wisconsin's largest library. Its square footage equals that of 200 typical three-bedroom homes.
- More than 29,000 students and staff attended library instruction programs last year.
- In 2005, UW—Madison libraries ranked eleventh among North American libraries, according to the Association of Research Libraries.

