I. INTRODUCTION AND PURPOSE
This retention schedule represents the official University of Wisconsin-Madison policy with regard to the retention and disposition of all university and public records and information and has the approval of the University Records Management Advisory Group (URMAG) and the Wisconsin Public Records Board (PRB). The PRB is the statutory body with the responsibility to safeguard the financial, legal, administrative, and historical interests of the State in the disposition of records through the review of records schedules prepared by State agencies.

This retention schedule also provides guidance to University of Wisconsin-Madison employees regarding what does and does not comprise a public record. The UW-Madison campus must manage all records to ensure systematic control from creation or receipt through processing, distribution, maintenance, retrieval, retention and final disposal for records retention purposes.

II. SCOPE:
This schedule pertains to the records and information arising from currently understood UW-Madison record policies and procedures. It applies to all such records regardless of format or media. While an attempt has been made to describe the records in commonly used terms, there may be instances in which the schedule does not reflect the exact title or name used by a given department. If offices or departments cannot determine by the descriptive information provided on each item whether a given departmental record is covered or not, they should contact the University Records Officer. An attempt has been made to include all records commonly required or used within the University campus. However, as processes change, forms may be modified and new ones created, and documentation requirements may also change. This schedule will be reviewed periodically to insure that it is kept as up-to-date as possible. This schedule applies to all organizational units of the University of Wisconsin-Madison and any attached entities that are required to follow UW-Madison policies.

III. SUSPENSION OF THE RECORDS RETENTION SCHEDULE
University and Public Records may be delayed from disposition / destruction only under the following conditions:

1. Particular records have been identified as needed for a financial or performance audit.

2. Records that are required for legal proceedings are held under a “litigation hold” for an actual or imminent legal proceeding. Imminent meaning legal action is anticipated or there is reasonable expectation thereof.

3. An open records request has been received and not completed. Contact Lisa Hull, University Relations lhull@wisc.edu See Office of Legal Affairs - Public Records http://legal.wisc.edu/public-records.htm
4. The Wisconsin Open Records Law, § 19.35(5), Wis. Stats, forbids the destruction of any record after an inspection or copying request until the request is granted, or at least 60 days after the date that the request was denied. Court orders and litigation may extend this time period. The agency's legal custodian of records can provide advice. For the University of Wisconsin Madison the legal custodian is the University Relations in the Chancellor’s Office.

5. “It is the responsibility of the office holding the record to determine if an audit or litigation is pending, anticipated or imminent, or if an open record request is pending or the time specified in Wis. Stat. s. 19.35(5) has not yet elapsed.

6. UTILITY AND FUNCTION OF INFORMATION PROVIDED WITHIN THIS DOCUMENT

a. Minimum Retention Established and Permanent Retention Procedure. The records retention schedules included within this document establish minimum retention periods for each type of record. The disposition of each record is assumed to be destruction after its minimum retention period or transfer to the UW Archives.

Under Wisconsin law, many materials comprise public records performing the transaction of public business on behalf of the University Campus. Under Wis. Stats. § 16.61, Public records are defined as "all books, papers, maps, photographs, films, recordings, optical disks, electronically formatted documents or other documentary materials, regardless of physical form or characteristics, made, or received by any state agency or its officers or employees in connection with the transaction of public business.”

c. Materials That Do Not Comprise Public Records. Under Wisconsin law, many materials do not comprise public records. Therefore, non-records should be retained only so long as they are useful as a resource for performing the transaction of public business on behalf of the University Campus. Thereafter, in the interest of efficiency and proper resource management, they should be destroyed. Under Wis. Stats. § 16.61, the definition of "Record" does not include: duplicate copies of materials the original copies of which are in the custody of the University and which are maintained only for convenience or reference and for no other substantive purpose; materials in the possession of a library or museum made or acquired solely for reference or exhibition purposes; notices or invitations received by the University that were not solicited by the University and that are not related to any official action taken, proposed or considered by the University; drafts, notes, preliminary computations and like materials prepared for the originator's personal use or prepared by the originator in the name of a person for whom the originator is working; and routing slips and envelopes.

d. Preservation of Historical Documents. Historically, University records have been preserved in paper files. Presently, however, advances in technology are beginning to present a viable alternative to paper records: electronic data stored in many electronic systems. Because of the potential for electronically-preserved information to be lost over time as electronic systems degrade or become obsolete, electronic systems should be used as the primary manner of preserving historical documents only if measures are implemented to ensure appropriate updates to the electronic storage systems are consistently purchased, installed, and maintained, and to ensure the appropriate migration of the electronically-stored information as electronic systems become obsolete and are replaced by new technologies.

Because of the consequences of failing to appropriately maintain electronic information technology systems, records storage within an electronic information system must comply with the legal requirements set forth in Board of Regents Policy Document 3-2: University of Wisconsin System Public Records Management; and Wisconsin Administrative Rule 12: Electronic Records Management-Standards and Requirements.

Please carefully review these documents prior to storing official copies of public records upon information systems and if you have questions or concerns, then please seek assistance from the University Records Officer.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN- MADISON

General Administrative Education – Academic Planning & Institutional Research (APIR)

APIR is the institutional research (IR) office for UW-Madison. We provide analytics and information resources related to the academic people (students, faculty, staff), programs (degrees, majors, certificates), structures (schools/colleges, departments, centers and institutes), and curriculum of UW-Madison. Our analytics focus is on trends, peer comparisons, and combinations of data across disparate sources. We provide analytics for decision-making and policy development and review, and official data for internal and external audiences. We also support course academic-program planning activities (including new courses, course changes, new academic programs and program changes, changes to academic structures), conducted within the context and faculty policy and governance.

This Schedule covers the following record series.
