

E-SOURCES ON WOMEN & GENDER

Feminist Collections, v. 32, no. 2, Spring 2011, p. 21

Our website (<http://womenst.library.wisc.edu/>) includes recent editions of this column and links to complete back issues of Feminist Collections, plus many bibliographies, a database of women-focused videos, and links to hundreds of other websites by topic.

Information about electronic journals and magazines, particularly those with numbered or dated issues posted on a regular schedule, can be found in our “Periodical Notes” column.

E-MUSEUM

GIRL MUSEUM is “dedicated to researching the unique experience of growing up female, and documenting this through telling stories and exhibiting historic and contemporary images and material culture related to this experience,” according to founder and “head girl” Ashley E. Remer (writing in Girlhood Studies v. 3, no. 2, Winter 2010, p. 140). Current online exhibitions at <http://girlmuseum.org> include “Across Time & Space: Multicultural Representations of Girlhood,” “Girl Saints,” “Hina Matsuri: Celebrating Girls’ Day in Japan,” “Girl for Sale...a collaborative exhibition about girl trafficking that interrogates and responds to the issues through poetry, art and education,” and “31 Heroines of March,” which includes a virtual quilt.
